AND NOW, this 11th day of March, 2013, the Court, having conducted a telephone conference with Settlement Counsel and Counsel for DuPont on March 5, 2013, HEREBY AMENDS its February 11, 2013, Order (Docket No.160), and further ORDERS that:

1. Paragraph 6 of the February 11, 2013 Order is amended to read as follows: The Court finds that the proposed notice program is the best practicable notice under the circumstances and is reasonably calculated to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of this Action and their right to object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement Class.

DuPont shall cause notice to be disseminated as follows:

a. Internet Notice: Not later than March 25, 2013, the Claims Administrator shall publish both the Publication and Long Form Notices on a settlement website, which shall be made available through a link on Plaintiffs' Counsel's websites, and shall contain copies of the Settlement Notices, the fully executed Settlement Agreement, and relevant Court Orders and filings (including the Fee Application). The Settlement Notices shall direct recipients to the location of the settlement website, which shall remain active through December 1, 2013.

b. Publication Notice: Not later than April 25, 2013, the Claims Administrator shall publish the Publication Notice, substantially in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit 9, in publications identified in Exhibit 7.

c. Television Notice: Beginning not later than April 8, 2013, and concluding not later than May 5, 2013, the Claims Administrator shall place local advertisements on television in the 46 Designated Market Areas most seriously impacted by Imprelis.

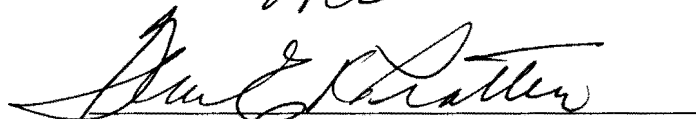

d. Mail Notice: Not later than March 25, 2013, the Claims Administrator shall mail the Long Form Notices, substantially in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibits 5 and 6, via First Class Mail to all Settlement Class Members who have filed a claim in the DuPont Imprelis® Claims Process, have contacted DuPont or Settlement Counsel and provided a name and property address, or who have brought suit against DuPont for damage related to Imprelis®. A copy of such Notice will also be mailed via First Class Mail to counsel for those Settlement Class Members, provided that counsel has supplied a mailing address to DuPont.

2. The Court authorizes clerical and grammatical edits and corrections to the Publication Notice, the Long Form Notices, and any additional forms attached to the Settlement Agreement without prior approval thereof. The parties shall apprise the Court of any changes to these documents and contemporaneously provide the Court with conformed copies;

3. The remaining deadlines in the Court's February 11, 2013 Order (Docket No. 160) shall remain in full force and effect.
