BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this Notice about?

This Notice is to inform you about the status and settlement of ongoing litigation which may affect your rights. You have the right to know about the lawsuit and about your legal rights and options before the Court or a jury decides whether the claims being made against the Defendants on your behalf are correct, and whether to approve the Settlement.

The Court in charge is the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana. The case is styled Hobbie, et al. v. RCR Holdings II, LLC, et al., No. 10-1113 (E.D. La.) (Fallon, J.), originally filed in Florida Circuit Court and subsequently removed to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana and transferred to be part of a multidistrict litigation titled In re: Chinese Manufactured Drywall Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 2047.

2. What is the lawsuit about?

This action arises out of allegedly defective drywall that was manufactured in China (“Chinese drywall”), distributed throughout the United States, and installed in condominiums at Villa Lago at Renaissance Commons in Boynton Beach, Florida.

This litigation was brought in 2009 in Florida state court and was styled Wendy Lee Hobbie et al. v. RCR Holdings, II, LLC, Coastal Construction of South Florida d/b/a Coastal Condominiums, et al., Case No. 50 2009CA032471 (Cir. Ct. Palm Beach County). The action was removed to federal court under the Class Action Fairness Act and transferred and consolidated with thousands of other similar cases regarding the alleged defective Chinese drywall pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana before the honorable Judge Fallon.

This litigation seeks relief on behalf of persons and entities with claims arising out of Chinese Drywall installed at Villa Lago at Renaissance Commons in Boynton Beach, Florida.

3. What is Chinese Drywall?

Chinese Drywall refers to drywall imported from China which contains extraneous metals and minerals. Under certain environmental conditions (typically warm, humid climates), the drywall will emit sulfur gasses. These gasses create a noxious odor and corrode copper and other metal surfaces, which can then damage appliances and electronics.

4. What is a class action?

In a class action, people called class representatives sue on behalf of a group or a “class” of people who have similar claims. In a class action, the court resolves the issues for all class members except those who exclude themselves from the class.

WHO IS INCLUDED

5. Who are the Defendants?

The Settling Defendants are Coastal Construction of South Florida, Inc., and related entities, Precision Drywall, Inc. and its related insurers, Banner Supply Co., and related entities, Knauf Plasterboard (Tianjin) Co. Ltd, and related entities, and several of the Defendants' insurers.

6. How do I know if I am in the Class?

You are a member of the Class if you are a person or entity who owned, leased or occupied a condominium located at Villa Lago at Renaissance Commons in Boynton Beach, Florida, regardless of whether or not you own, lease, or occupy the unit as of the date of this Notice, the Villa Lago Condominium Association at Renaissance Commons, Inc., and all persons and entities who sustained or claim to have sustained damages of any nature or kind as a result of the alleged manufacture, sale, distribution, use, installation or remediation of Chinese Drywall at Villa Lago at Renaissance Commons ("Class Members" or "Settlement Class Members").

Excluded from the Settlement Class are any person, firm, trust, corporation, or other entity related or affiliated with the Settling Defendants and Settling Insurers including, without limitation, persons who are officers, directors, employees, associates or partners of the Defendants and Insurers.

THE SETTLEMENT'S BENEFITS

7. What does the Settlement provide?

The Settlement provides for a payment of $7,200,000 to the Villa Lago Settlement Fund, which, in combination with payments from other related settlements, shall be used to remediate condominiums at Villa Lago and provide cash payments to Class Members. The cost to administer the Settlement as well as attorneys' fees will come out of the Settlement Fund (see Question 18).

8. What benefits do I get from the Settlement?

Each Class Member may receive remediation of their condominium, cash compensation, or a combination thereof. Your eligibility for these benefits depends on your Class Member status. For a summary of these settlement benefits, please see the chart, "Summary of Settlement Benefits for Villa Lago Class Members," available at <http://www.laed.uscourts.gov/Drywall/Settlements.htm>.

In order for your condominium to be remediated, and/or to receive a payment, you will need to file a valid claim form when the claims period begins. A notice about the claims process will be made available as ordered by the Court.

If you want to receive a notice about the claims process, you should register by calling Whitfield Bryson & Mason LLP at (202) 429-2290

9. When will my condominium be remediated?

Remediation will not begin on your condominium until after the Settlement becomes final.

10. When will I receive a payment?

Payment from the Settlement Fund will not be made until after the Settlement becomes final. If the Settlement is approved, the Court will enter an order and judgment dismissing the lawsuit to the extent that it asserts claims against the Defendants, and releasing the Defendants from all claims which were, or could have been, asserted by you or on your behalf in the Litigation.

If the Court approves the Settlement, each Class Member registered with Whitfield Bryson & Mason LLP (see Question 8) who did not opt out from the Settlement Class will receive a Court Notice with final instructions.

REMAINING IN THE CLASS

11. What am I giving up if I stay in the lawsuit?

You will give up your right to sue any of the Defendants on your own for the claims in this case unless you exclude yourself from the Class. You will also be bound by any decision by the Court relating to the lawsuit and Settlement.

In return for paying the Settlement amount, the Defendants will be released from all claims relating to the facts underlying this lawsuit, as more fully described in the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement describes the released claims in detail, so read them carefully since those descriptions are binding on you. If you have any questions, you can talk to Settlement Class Counsel for free, or you can, of course, talk to your own lawyer if you have questions about what this means. The Settlement Agreement and other relevant documents are available at <http://www.laed.uscourts.gov/Drywall/Settlements.htm>.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE CLASS

12. How do I get out of the Class?

To exclude yourself from the Class, you must send a request, in writing that you wish to be excluded from this Settlement. Your request for exclusion must include your name, your mailing address, your e-mail address, if any, your telephone number and your signature (it must be signed by you, any request made verbally or signed by your counsel will not count). You must mail your exclusion request no later than _____ to:

14. If I exclude myself, can I still get benefits?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not get any benefit as a result of the Settlement, trial or judgment in this case.

OBJECTING OR COMMENTING ON THE SETTLEMENTS

The written comments or objections must include your name, mailing address, e-mail address, if any, telephone number, the case name and number (In re: Chinese Manufactured Drywall Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 2047: relating to *Hobbie, et al. v. 1000 N.W. 57th Court, Suite 300

16. What is the difference between excluding myself (from the Class) or objecting to the Settlement?

If you exclude yourself from the Class, you are telling the Court that you do not want to be a part of this case and, therefore, you will not receive any benefits from it. Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you remain in the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object to the Settlement because the case no longer affects you.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

17. Do I have a lawyer representing me?

The Court has appointed Gary E. Mason and Daniel K. Bryson of Whitfield Bryson & Mason LLP, Joel R. Rhine of Rhine Law Firm, P.C., Adam Linkhorst of Linkhorst & Hockin P.A., and Gregory S. Weiss of Leopold Law, P.A. as Settlement Class Counsel for the Class. You do not have to pay Class Counsel separately. The attorneys will be paid by asking the Court for a share of the Settlement proceeds or recovery obtained. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, and have that lawyer appear in court for you in this case, you may hire one at your own expense.

18. How will the lawyers be paid?

At a later date, Class Counsel will ask the Court for attorneys' fees based on their work on this litigation. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the parties have agreed to attorneys' fees of $2,670,960.62 and costs of $380,946.00 for a total of $3,051,906.63. Class Counsel may seek additional attorneys' fees from any other settlement or recovery obtained. Any payment to the attorneys will be subject to Court approval and the Court may award less than the requested amount. The fees, costs, expenses and awards that the Court orders, plus the costs to administer the Settlement, will come out of the Settlement Fund.

THE FAIRNESS HEARING

19. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing at : m, time on at the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, Courtroom C468, 500 Poydras Street, New Orleans, LA 70130. The hearing may be moved to a different date or time without additional notice, so it is a good idea to check <http://www.laed.uscourts.gov/Drywall/Drywall.htm>. At this hearing the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. If there are objections or comments, the Court will consider them at this time. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

20. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. But you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection or comment, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend, but it's not required.

21. May I speak at the hearing?

If you would like to speak at the hearing, you must send a notice of intent to appear. This letter must state whether you or your lawyer intends to appear at the Fairness Hearing. It must also identify any witnesses you intend to call, the subject area of the witnesses' testimony, and all documents to be used or offered into evidence, at the Fairness Hearing.
