CONTINGENCY FEE AGREEMENT

I, Marguerite McNeill, (hereinafter "Client") hereby employ HIRSH, BJORGAARD & ROGERS, P.L.C., Attorneys at Law, to represent me in my suit for recovery of money which arises out of a hip replacement recall.

Said attorneys will advance all court costs and other expenses of litigation on behalf of the Client. Should Client recover nothing, Client is ultimately responsible for the costs of litigation. In the event of a recovery, all costs advanced by the attorneys shall be repaid from Client's recovery.

If no recovery is made, the Client will not be charged a fee.

In the event of a recovery, said attorneys are to receive for their attorneys' fees 33.3% (one-third) of all sums recovered.

If the terms of the settlement include, in whole or in part, a structured settlement, annuity, or other type of deferred payment, the attorneys shall be entitled to their percentage fee based upon the present value of those sums.

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT BINDING LEGAL DOCUMENT.

If you have any questions about what it means, do not sign it.

DATED this 22 day of September, 2002.

Client:
