SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER ON PENDING MOTIONS TO DISMISS, FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT, AND TO AMEND

SAYLOR, J.

As of December 20, 2013, various plaintiffs in this litigation adopted some variation of the standardized short-form complaint that was filed in the master docket on November 5, 2013. The effect of those filings was to amend the original complaints that had been filed by those particular plaintiffs. The amendment of those complaints has rendered it unnecessary for the Court to rule on any pending motion to dismiss, motion for summary judgment, or motion to amend in those actions.

Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a list of 33 cases in which motions to dismiss, motions for summary judgment, or motions to amend are presently pending, and in which the relevant plaintiffs have adopted the short-form complaint after the filing of the motion. Each of those motions is hereby DENIED without prejudice to its renewal.

In addition, defendant Alaunus Pharmaceutical, LLC, filed two motions to dismiss in the docket of Erkan v. New England Compounding Pharmacy, Inc., et al., 12-12052, before the creation of the MDL proceeding.

First, it moved to dismiss the complaint in Martin, et al. v. New England Compounding Pharmacy, Inc., et al., 12-12055, but filed the motion in the docket for Erkan. (Erkan Dkt. No. 138). Plaintiff Martin has since filed a short-form complaint. The pending motion to dismiss by Alaunus is DENIED without prejudice to its renewal.

Second, it moved to dismiss the complaint in McDow, et al. v. New England Compounding Pharmacy, Inc., et al., 12-12112, but filed the motion in the docket for Erkan. (Erkan, Dkt. No. 145). Plaintiff McDow has not filed an amended complaint. Defendant Alaunus is directed to refile the motion to dismiss in the docket for McDow, and the clerk is directed to terminate the motion in the docket for Erkan (no. 145). That motion shall remain pending.

So Ordered.
