UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

In Re: Toyota Motor Corp. Unintended Acceleration Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation CASE NO: 8: 10ML2151 JVS(FMOx)

This document relates to:

ORDER NO. 1: INITIAL CONFERENCE

ALL CASES (See Exhibit A)

Date: May 14, 2010

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Place: 411 W. Fourth Street,
Santa Ana, CA 92701
Court Room 10C

By order of the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (J.P.M.L.), the actions listed in Exhibit A were transferred and assigned to this Court for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 1407. Additional tag-along actions may be transferred.

Because these cases merit special attention as complex litigation, the Court ORDERS:

April 14, 2010

1 1. Conference. Counsel for all parties shall appear for a conference on 2 May 13, 2010 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom 10C of the Ronald Reagan Federal
3 Building and U.S. Courthouse at 411 W. Fourth Street, Santa Ana, CA, 92701.
4 The conference will be held for the purposes specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(a),
5 16(b), 16(c), 16(f), and 26(f). Counsel are requested to check in with the 6 Courtroom Deputy at least 15 minutes in advance.

8 2. Preliminary Thoughts. The Court provides the following preliminary 9 thoughts in order to assist counsel in focusing on the immediate issues presented
10 by these cases. These thoughts are of course subject to revision upon 11 submission of the views of the parties and counsel, which the Court invites.

12 2.1. Structure. Because this docket involves both personal injury actions
13 and actions for economic loss, the Court believes a somewhat unique structure is 14 required.

16 • The Court envisions appointment of a liaison counsel or liaison
17 counsel committee to manage the core discovery requirements for the personal 18 injury actions. By core discovery, the Court means discovery of the 19 development, marketing, sales, manufacture, and administration of the Toyota
20 products and product programs at issue in this case. Because each personal
21 injury action will undoubtedly entail discovery unique to that action, the Court
22 believes that each plaintiff's counsel will have a role in addressing those needs.
23 To the extent possible, individual case needs will be combined and coordinated 24 with core discovery.

26 • The Court envisions appointment of one or more counsel to act as 27 lead counsel for the economic loss cases. Lead counsel would also act as liaison

1 to counsel for the economic loss cases. Lead counsel would have the
2 responsibility of preparing a consolidated complaint covering the issues in all
3 the economic loss cases.

5 • The Court envisions appointment of a core discovery committee,
6 comprised of counsel with liaison responsibility for the personal injury cases and 7 counsel having lead counsel responsibility for the economic loss cases. The 8 committee would be responsible for identifying and conducting core discovery.
9 Along with counsel for the Toyota parties, the core discovery committee would
10 have the responsibility of drafting and presenting to the Court an overall
11 scheduling plan, which would include a discovery plan. The Court envisions
12 that the scheduling plan would address at least the issues set forth in Exhibit B
13 hereto.

15 2.2. Immediate Goals. The goals of the Scheduling Conference are three-16 fold: adoption of a structure for organizing the docket, appointment of counsel to 17 fill out the structure, and adoption of a working definition of core discovery.

18
19 2.3. Next Step. With the goals of the initial Scheduling Conference in 20 place, the Court will set a further conference in approximately 30 days to 21 consider the adoption of an overall scheduling plan, including a discovery plan.

22
23 2.4. Role of Counsel. The management of this docket holds unique
24 challenges. The Court looks forward to benefitting from the knowledge and 25 experience of seasoned counsel to arrive at solutions which will ensure the 26 orderly preparation of these cases. Counsel, the parties and the Court will all 27 need to work collaboratively.

1 3. Particulars of the Scheduling Conference.

3 3.1. Representation. Parties with similar interests may (but are not
4 required to) agree on a single attorney, or a limited number of attorneys, to act
5 on their joint behalf at the conference. A party will not, by designating an 6 attorney to represent his or her interests at the conference, be precluded from 7 other representation during the litigation. Attendance at the conference will not
8 waive objections to jurisdiction, service, or like matters. Telephonic
9 appearances will not be permitted.

10 3.2. Other Counsel. This Order is being mailed to the persons shown on 11 Exhibit A, which has been prepared from the list of counsel making appearances
12 with the J.P.M.L. Counsel on this list are requested to forward a copy of this 13 Order to other attorneys who should be notified of the conference. An updated
14 service list will be prepared after the conference.

15 3.3. Other Parties. Persons who are not named as parties in this litigation
16 but may later be joined as parties, and persons who are parties in related
17 litigation pending in other federal and state courts, are invited to attend in person
18 or by counsel.

19
20 4. Preparations for the Scheduling Conference.

21
22 4.1. Rules. Counsel are expected to be familiar with the Manual for 23 Complex Litigation, Fourth. Counsel are also required to review the Local 24 Rules for the Central District of California, General Orders 08-02 (electronic 25 filing) and 08-11 (electronic filing), and this Court's general procedures, all of 26 which may be found on the Central District of California website at 27 www.cacd.uscourts.gov.

1 4. 2. Initial Conference of Counsel. Before the conference, counsel shall
2 confer and seek consensus to the extent possible concerning the immediate
3 issues and any other matters they wish to bring to the Court at this time. The 4 Court designates:

6 Steve W. Berman, Esq.
7 Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP
8 1918 Eighth Avenue, Suite 3300
9 Seattle, WA 98101

10
11 Elizabeth J. Cabraser, Esq.
12 Lieff Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein, LLP
13 275 Battery Street, Suite 3000
14 San Francisco, CA 94111

15
16 Cari K. Dawson, Esq.
17 Alston & Byrd LLP
18 1201 West Peachtree Street
19 Atlanta, GA 30309

20
21 Marc M. Seltzer, Esq.
22 Susman Godfrey LLP
23 1901 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 950
24 Los Angeles, CA 90067

25 These temporary designations are not a precursor of future appointments, but 26 simply a means to initiate the process. The Court expects that all counsel 27 desiring to do so will have a full opportunity to participate in the discussion and

1 the report which the Court requests.

3 4.3. Preliminary Report. Counsel will submit to the Court by Friday,
4 April 30, 2010, a report including the following:

6 • Proposed structure of counsel.

8 • Definition of core discovery.

10 • A brief statement of counsel's understanding of the facts and the 11 critical legal issues. Any potentially dispositive issues should be separately
12 identified. These statements will not be binding, will not waive claims or 13 defenses, and may not be offered into evidence against a party in later
14 proceedings.

15

16 • A list of all pending motions.

17

18 • A list of all outstanding discovery.

19

20 • A list of all known related cases pending in state or federal court and 21 their current status.

23 • A list of all parents, subsidiaries, and companies affiliated with the 24 corporate parties and of all counsel associated in the litigation to help the Court
25 identify any problems of recusal or disqualification.

26

27 Where possible, the Court urges counsel to set forth their views in a single report
28 which notes both consensus views and divergent views where that is the case.

28 April 14, 2010

1 Any party may supplement the report with a filing of no more than ten pages.

3 5. Interim Measures.

5 5.1. Admission of Counsel. All attorneys admitted to practice and in good
6 standing in any United States District Court are admitted pro hac vice.

7 Association of local counsel is not required. If not already registered, counsel
8 will need to register for electronic filing (CM/ECF) in the Central District of 9 California. (More information can be found on the Court's website and in 10 General Orders 08-02 and 08-11).

11

12 5.2. Preservation of Records. Until the parties reach agreement on a 13 plan for preservation of records, all parties and their counsel must preserve all
14 evidence that may be relevant to these actions.

16 5.3. Stay of Motions Practice. Except for motions for emergency relief,
17 no motion shall be filed until and in accordance with the Scheduling Order.

19 5.4 Motions. No motion shall be filed under Rule 11, 12, or 56 without 20 leave of court and unless it includes a certificate that the movant has conferred
21 with opposing counsel in a good faith effort to resolve the matter without court
22 action.

22

23 5.5 Orders of Transferor Courts. All orders by transferor courts
24 imposing dates for pleading or discovery are vacated.

26 5.6. Chambers Mail Box. The Court maintains an electronic mail box for 27 communications with the Courtroom Deputy and for receipt of proposed orders

28 April 14, 2010

1 in electronic format (either Word or WordPerfect). The electronic mail box for
2 this docket is: JVS_ToyotaMDL@cacd.uscourts.gov.

4 5.7. Website. The Court has established a web page accessible from the 5 first page of the Court's website (click on "IN RE: TOYOTA MOTOR
6 CORP."). The Court will regularly post copies of orders, notices and other items
7 of interest to the page.

9 6. Later Filed Cases. This Order shall also apply to related cases later filed
10 in, removed to, or transferred to this Court.

11

12 7. Applications for Lead and Liaison Counsel Appointments. As noted
13 above, the Court presently intends to appoint plaintiffs' lead counsel and liaison
14 counsel. Applications for these positions must be filed with the clerk's office
15 on or before April 30, 2010. The Court will only consider attorneys who have
16 filed an action in this litigation. The main criteria for these appointments are (1)
17 knowledge and experience in prosecuting complex litigation, including class
18 actions; (2) willingness and ability to commit to a time-consuming process; (3)
19 ability to work cooperatively with others; and (4) access to sufficient resources 20 to prosecute the

1 litigation in a timely manner. Where appropriate, applications should also set
2 forth attorney fee proposals, rates, and percentages that applicants expect to seek
3 if the litigation succeeds in creating a common fund.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.

Proceedings: (In Chambers) Order Re Clarifying the Scope of Applications

The Court has been asked to clarify the scope of applications sought under paragraph 7 of the Court's April 14, 2010 order, Applications for Lead and Liaison Counsel Appointments.

Because the final leadership structure has not been determined, and indeed will be one of the matters resolved at the May 13, 2010 hearing, it is somewhat difficult to be more precise. The Court believes that applications should be submitted for any leadership position under the structure which a party advocates. By way of example, under the structure outlined in paragraph 2.1 of the April 14, 2010 order, applications would include applications for the following positions:

- One or more lead liaison counsel for the personal injury actions
- Membership on a committee for liaison counsel for the personal injury actions
- One or more lead counsel for the economic loss cases
- Membership on a committee for lead counsel for the economic loss cases

As outlined in the April 14, 2010 order, members of the core discovery committee would be drawn from members of the liaison counsel committee and the lead counsel committee.

The Court's goal is to establish the structure and to fill the leadership positions in that structure promptly at or shortly after the May 13, 2010 hearing.
