PLAINTIFFS’ STEERING COMMITTEE’S
NOTICE OF FILING OF SUMMARY OF SHORT FORM COMPLAINTS

At the January 10, 2014 status conference, the Plaintiffs’ Steering Committee (“PSC”) stated that it would file a census of short form complaints detailing the number of short form complaints filed on or before December 20, 2013. The PSC has not completed its review of the short form complaints and files the following summary.

As of January 14, 2013, there were 330 unique cases pending in this MDL representing claims by approximately 400 individual plaintiffs (excluding plaintiffs with derivative claims such as loss of consortium claims).<sup>1</sup> Of these 330 unique cases, 253 had short form complaints on file as of December 20, 2013. All short form complaints name Unifirst as a party defendant and 11 short form complaints name Liberty Industries, Inc. as a defendant. 149 short form complaints name clinic related defendants.<sup>2</sup> The below chart summarizes the number of short form complaints pending against the clinics performing injections. For convenience, the below chart does not break out every employee or physician named in the short form complaints, but rather summarizes the

<sup>1</sup> The discrepancy between unique cases and number of plaintiffs is due to the fact that some cases name multiple plaintiffs. See Adair v. Ameridose, 1:13-cv-11609-FDS (34 plaintiffs); Ferguson v. Ameridose, 1:13-cv-12571-FDS (3 plaintiffs); Besaw v. Ameridose, 1:13-cv-12604 (16 plaintiffs); Barger v. Ameridose, 1:13-cv-12619 (13 plaintiffs)

<sup>2</sup> Clinic related defendants are doctors or healthcare professionals who administered the NECC drug and the healthcare facilities where the NECC drug was administered. See Corrected Short Form Complaint [Master Dkt. No. 590].

<sup>5</sup> These 8 SFCs represent all short form complaints that name one or more of the following entities and individuals: South Jersey Healthcare, South Jersey Hospital, Kimberly Yvette Smith, M.D., and/or Nitesh Bhagat. One case naming these entities also names Premier Orthopedic Associates and this case has been counted in both columns.

To be clear, this is not a comprehensive list of all clinics named in complaints in the MDL. Some plaintiffs named clinics in their original complaints and elected not to file short form complaints.<sup>6</sup>
